

Cloud Travel – GDPR Compliance & Privacy Policy (Updated May 2026)

Cloud Travel Agency is committed to protecting personal data in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018, and all applicable UK privacy laws. This policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect personal information when providing visa and travel-related services.

1. About Us

Cloud Travel Agency is a UK-registered private travel and visa assistance service provider. We offer document checking, visa application support, appointment booking, and related consultancy services.

We are not affiliated with any government body, embassy, consulate, or immigration authority.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following personal data where necessary to provide our services:

- Full name and contact details
- Date and place of birth
- Passport and travel document information
- Nationality and immigration status
- Employment and financial details (where required for visa applications)
- Travel history and itinerary information
- Supporting documents submitted for visa processing
- Payment and billing information
- Communication records (email, phone, messages)

We only collect data that is relevant and necessary for the services requested.

3. Special Category Data

Some visa applications may require sensitive personal data, such as:

- Biometric data
- Health information (where required by authorities)
- Criminal record declarations
- Racial or ethnic background (where required by application forms)

This data is processed only when strictly necessary and in line with UK GDPR Article 9 conditions.

4. Lawful Basis for Processing

We process personal data under the following lawful bases:

- Performance of a contract
- Legal obligation
- Legitimate interests
- Consent (where applicable)
- Establishment or defence of legal claims

5. Purpose of Processing

Your data may be used for:

- Visa application preparation and submission support
- Document verification and assessment
- Booking and managing appointments
- Communication with embassies, consulates, and visa centres
- Courier and document handling services
- Fraud prevention and identity verification
- Customer service and support
- Legal and compliance obligations

6. Data Sharing

We may share personal data only where necessary with:

- Embassies and consulates
- Visa application centres
- Government authorities
- Courier and postal services
- Translation or document legalisation providers
- Payment processors
- Professional advisers where required

We do not sell or rent personal data to third parties.

7. International Transfers

Where required for visa processing, personal data may be transferred outside the UK. Such transfers are made only where appropriate safeguards are in place in accordance with UK GDPR requirements.

8. Data Security

We apply appropriate technical and organisational security measures to protect personal data against:

- Unauthorised access
- Loss or destruction
- Alteration or disclosure
- Misuse or unlawful processing

While we take all reasonable steps, no system can guarantee absolute security.

9. Data Retention

Personal data is retained only for as long as necessary to:

- Deliver the requested service
- Comply with legal and regulatory obligations
- Resolve disputes
- Maintain business and audit records

Retention periods may vary depending on legal requirements.

10. Your Rights Under UK GDPR

You have the right to:

- Access your personal data
- Request correction of inaccurate data
- Request deletion (where applicable)
- Restrict or object to processing
- Request data portability
- Withdraw consent at any time (where applicable)
- Lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

11. Subject Access Requests

Requests for access to personal data must be made in writing. Identity verification may be required before any data is disclosed.

12. Marketing

We may send service-related updates or information where legally permitted. You may opt out of marketing communications at any time.

13. Cookies and Digital Use

Where applicable, our systems may use cookies and analytics tools to improve service performance, security, and user experience. Users can manage cookie preferences via browser settings.

14. Third Parties

We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party organisations such as embassies, visa centres, or courier services once data has been shared lawfully for service delivery.

15. Limitation of Liability

We are not liable for:

- Processing delays by government or embassy systems
- Errors or decisions made by third parties
- Loss of data outside our reasonable control
- Cybersecurity incidents beyond reasonable safeguards

16. Policy Updates

We may update this policy from time to time. The most recent version will always apply from the date of publication.

17. Contact Information

For any privacy or GDPR-related queries, clients should contact Cloud Travel directly.

You also have the right to contact the UK supervisory authority:

Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)
